ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITIES

As Vice Dean

Assist in the development and implementation of new degree programs, including Master of Jurisprudence and Master of Laws;

Develop and oversee Professionalism and Leadership Program, including new 1L course on Professional Identity; [as a part of my Director duties]

Collaborate with TAMU administrators and faculty at various colleges to design and implement 3+3 program;

Investigate and design collaborative educational programs involving other TAMU colleges, including pre-law programs, joint degrees, and interdisciplinary courses;

Assist in the oversight of staff-related human resources issues;

Assist development of new international programs, including land use course in Ghana; and Assist Dean with various administrative, personnel, and development matters.

As Interim Dean (Texas A&M and Texas Wesleyan)

Oversaw law school operations and $20 million budget;

Developed external relationships for the law school with lawyers, judges, business leaders, and government officials;

Cultivated law school donors;

Built collaborative academic partnerships with other Texas A&M University colleges;

Managed various transition-related operational issues, including organizational changes, salary adjustments, modifications to grading and academic policies, marketing and communications issues, and budget-related procedures; and

Appeared before both the Accreditation Committee and the Council of the Section on Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar for the American Bar Association, related to law school's acquisition.

As Associate Dean for Academic Affairs (Texas Wesleyan)

Oversaw many aspects of the law school's preparation to transfer ownership to Texas A&M University, including:

Negotiated and drafted ABA Major Change Questionnaire seeking acquiescence in the transaction and the transfer of ABA accreditation;

Prepared program- and transition-related materials for submission to the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board; and Negotiated significant operations-related issues associated with the new law school, including employment status of professional skills faculty, the general framework of transition review for tenured faculty, and IT-related services and costs.

Administered law school academic program, including the following general responsibilities:

Prepared day and evening course and exam schedules for fall, winter, spring, and summer terms;

Hired and supervised adjunct professors;

Managed and drafted accreditation-related academic reporting required by the American Bar Association, the Association of American Law Schools, and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, including establishing and reporting on goals and objectives of the law school's educational program;

Supervised senior administrative staff, including Registrar, Director of Academic Support, Director of Externship Programs, and Director of Advocacy;

Oversaw implementation of Academic Standards;

Certified character and fitness for all students seeking bar admission;

Oversaw academic and administrative dismissals of students, including supervising the process of student appeals;

Provided academic and pre-professional counseling for students;

Managed budget for adjunct professors, faculty travel and conferences, and other academic expenses; and Investigated alleged Code of Conduct violations.

Beyond the general responsibilities of the position, I initiated or provided leadership in the following programmatic areas:

Designed and implemented new “winter term” at the law school for one-credit, non-traditional, intensive skills courses (such as Forensic Criminal Evidence and Deposition Skills);

Commissioned and analyzed comprehensive statistical analysis of graduates’ bar exam success over the prior ten years and then collaborated in the design and implementation of a new course (Art of Lawyering) to address identified deficiencies;

Assisted in the establishment and implementation of new oral skills graduation requirement for all students; and

Assisted in the establishment and administration of certificate programs in Intellectual Property, Business Law, Family Law, Estate Planning, and Dispute Resolution.
